

Examination Committee Charter

Document ID: EC Version: 2026.1 Approved by: Academic Council, 14 March 2026

Section EC-1. Constitution

EC-1.1 Establishment

There shall be an Examination Committee of the University, constituted by the Academic Council, to discharge the functions assigned to it by these regulations and by Document AR.

EC-1.2 Composition

The Examination Committee shall comprise the Dean of Academics as Chairperson, the Controller of Examinations as Member Secretary, three Heads of Department nominated by the Academic Council, one senior faculty member nominated by the Vice-Chancellor, and the Dean of Students. Members other than ex officio members hold office for two years.

EC-1.3 Quorum

The quorum for a meeting of the Examination Committee is four members, of whom at least one shall be a Head of Department. Decisions are taken by a majority of members present and voting. In the event of an equality of votes the Chairperson has a casting vote.

EC-1.4 Frequency of Meetings

The Committee shall meet not fewer than four times in an academic year, and additionally whenever a matter is referred to it under AR-5.6 or AR-8.1.

Section EC-2. Functions

EC-2.1 Examination Offences

The Committee shall enquire into every case of an examination offence reported under AR-5.6 and AR-8.3, and into every second instance of plagiarism referred under AR-8.1.

EC-2.2 Procedure

The Committee shall give the student written notice of the allegation, shall afford the student an opportunity to be heard in person, and shall record its findings in writing. The student may be accompanied by one person of the student's choosing, who shall not address the Committee.

EC-2.3 Penalties

On a finding that an examination offence has been committed, the Committee may cancel the result of the student in the course concerned, cancel the result of the student in the semester concerned, or debar the student from appearing in examinations for a stated period not exceeding two semesters. The Committee shall record reasons for the penalty imposed.

EC-2.4 Appeal

A student aggrieved by a decision of the Committee may appeal to the Vice-Chancellor within fifteen working days of communication of the decision. The Vice-Chancellor may confirm, reduce or set aside the penalty, but shall not enhance it.

Section EC-3. Powers of Relaxation

EC-3.1 General Power to Relax

Notwithstanding any provision of Document AR, the Examination Committee may, on the written application of a student and for reasons recorded in writing, waive the minimum attendance requirement in a course in whole or in part and permit the student to appear in the end-semester examination for that course. The Committee shall satisfy itself that the circumstances of the case are exceptional and that the student is otherwise prepared to appear in the examination.

EC-3.2 Application for Relaxation

An application under EC-3.1 shall be submitted to the Member Secretary not later than seven working days before the commencement of the end-semester examination period, together with such documentary evidence as the student wishes the Committee to consider.

EC-3.3 Record of Relaxations

Every relaxation granted under EC-3.1 shall be recorded in the minutes of the Committee and reported to the Academic Council at its next meeting. The Academic Council may direct that a relaxation be reviewed.

EC-3.4 Limits

The Committee shall not relax the passing standard in AR-6.2, the credit requirement in AR-10.1, or the maximum duration in AR-10.2.

Section EC-4. Results

EC-4.1 Approval of Results

The Committee shall approve the end-semester results placed before it by the Controller of Examinations before publication. Approval may be given by circulation where the Chairperson so directs.

EC-4.2 Withheld Results

Where the result of a student has been withheld under AR-5.6 or under the Fee Schedule, the Controller of Examinations shall place the matter before the Committee at its next meeting with a statement of the reason for withholding.

EC-4.3 Correction of Results

Where an error in a published result is detected, the Controller of Examinations shall report the error to the Chairperson, who may authorise immediate correction and shall report the correction to the Committee at its next meeting.

Section EC-5. Records

EC-5.1 Minutes

Minutes of every meeting shall be recorded by the Member Secretary, confirmed at the following meeting, and retained permanently.

EC-5.2 Confidentiality

Proceedings of the Committee relating to an individual student are confidential. The outcome shall be communicated in writing to the student, to the Head of Department concerned and to the Controller of Examinations, and to no other person.
